A live show built to move the room.

JoethePoet brings sharp lyricism, lived experience, and commanding energy to the stage. The Bronx born, Los Angeles based artist has performed across North America, Europe, and the Middle East, building shows that invite audiences into the music rather than leaving them to watch from the sidelines.

THE LIVE SHOW

Crowd connection in motion.

JoethePoet delivers a high energy hip hop set built around lyricism, honest storytelling, and direct crowd engagement. Performance footage, press photos, a technical rider, and selected press coverage are available in this kit.

ARTIST BIO

JoethePoet is an independent hip hop artist whose music turns perseverance, faith, and personal growth into direct, high energy storytelling. Since beginning his music journey in 2015, he has taken his work from intimate rooms to international festival stages, performing in cities including New York, Los Angeles, Paris, London, Glasgow, Rotterdam, Toronto, and Dubai.

His festival and showcase appearances include Focus Wales, New Skool Rules, Cranium Music Festival, PDX Hip Hop Week, and Chreece Music Festival. He has also appeared on bills with artists including Rakim, GZA, Bone Thugs-N-Harmony, DJ Quik, Conway The Machine, Ovrkast, Benny The Butcher, and Dave East.

Onstage, JoethePoet pairs rapid fire delivery with audience participation and moments of reflection. His song “All I Know” has become a live connection point, with crowds joining its hook across multiple cities. Sway’s Universe featured the record in 2026, and his song “My Way” has surpassed 100,000 streams.

JoethePoet is a Recording Academy Voting Member and was selected for the Château d’Orquevaux International Artists & Writers Residency in France as a Denis Diderot Grant recipient. His next international festival appearance is at Pro Weekend Fest in Castellón de la Plana, Spain, on October 17, 2026.
